 OF KENTUCKY.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GENERAL JOSEPH LANE,
 OF OREGON.

To the Democratic Voters of Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, KY., June 26th, 1860.

WHEREAS, The undersigned, Democratic State Central Committee of Kentucky, have heretofore called a State Convention of the party to assemble at Frankfort, on the 18th of July next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Rankin R. Revill, Esq.; and recent events have occurred, which, in the opinion of the Committee, render it necessary that the Convention, when assembled, should take into consideration the general interests of the Democratic party:

Therefore, we hereby recommend that said Convention, in addition to the special subject already submitted to it, take into consideration and act upon such other matters as may be brought before it touching the general interests of the party, with a view to its organization and harmonious action, and to secure its triumph in the approaching State and national contests.

The movements of the Douglas Party.

There is much talk about the probability of Bell and Everett's carrying Kentucky. It is impossible. Their party does hold the balance of power, and can possibly carry the State for Douglas or Breckinridge as they prefer. We promise them forgiveness, and will willingly receive their votes for Douglas, who, we can assure them, is for the "Constitution, the Union, and the enforcement of the laws."—Lou. Dem.

The Douglas movement has from the commencement been a disorganizing one. The great leader of their party—if party it may be called—began it by pursuing a factious opposition to the measures of the National Democratic administration and the National Democratic organization; and his followers have acted up to this time in perfect keeping with the example set by the "little giant." The breaking up of the Convention at Baltimore was precipitated by a factious and overbearing numerical majority wantonly and recklessly disfranchising sovereign Democratic States of their rightful representation in that body; and now, true to their instinct, we find them in the North preferring Black Republican associations, and in the South, a union with the Opposition, to fraternization with the constitutional Democracy.

It will be seen from the above extract which we take from the Douglas organ of Kentucky, that in the desperation of his cause, he is willing to coalesce with the K. N.'s, and will graciously forgive them if they will only condescend to come to the relief of "Little Doug" in this extremity. At the same time the organ of the squatter sovereigns is making arrangements to take up his bed and with his faction, walk out of the Democratic party. He has accordingly, like the lame captain, concluded to take an early start, and called a Douglas Convention to be held at Louisville at an early day! He has moreover proclaimed in his paper, that he cannot support a Breckinridge man for clerk of the Court of Appeals at the August election! He has taken great pains to exclude himself from the ranks of the Democracy, and we do not object to his taking such course as he may desire. We only wish to say that we do not want to hear from him in the future, any complaints that he has been thrust out of the party; he has performed that office for himself. He will doubtless lay great claims to Democracy, but his course in seeking a coalition with the Opposition against Breckinridge, and his declaration that he will not support the candidate for clerk of the Court of Appeals to be nominated by the 18th of July Democratic Convention, unless that nominee be a Douglas man, forever preclude him from asserting any such claim. He seems to have had an instinctive apprehension that Democratic councils are not the place for him.

By the way we observe that the Democrat, has the name of a candidate for clerk at the head of its columns. Are we to understand from this that that gentleman is a Douglas man?

A CORRECTION.—Our friend Col. Geo. Morrow, who was in Frankfort yesterday, requests us to correct the statement now going the rounds of the press, that he voted for Douglas in the Baltimore Convention. He says that he voted against Douglas to the very last. He has not yet taken position for either the Douglas or Breckinridge ticket. His course at Baltimore was prompted by what he believed to be the wishes of his constituency.

The Louisville Democrat, which has been a consistent Douglas paper for years, is the only Democratic print in Kentucky that supports the nominees of the Rump Convention, except an 8 x 10 sheet with a half dozen paying subscribers published somewhere in this edition of the State.

Pierce, Dickinson, Buchanan and all the great leaders of the Democracy are for the Breckinridge ticket.

All the Democratic Congressmen from Kentucky are for our candidates.

All the Democratic State officers at Frankfort, from the Governor down, are enthusiastic in the support of Breckinridge and Lane.

All the members of the Democratic State Central Committee, headed by that venerable patriarch of Democracy, JEPHTHA DUDLEY, have declared themselves for the true National Democratic ticket, which is inscribed upon our mast-head.

Hon. Humphrey Marshall, the best speaker of the Opposition party, has come out for Breckinridge.

The following papers in Kentucky have hoisted the flag of Breckinridge and Lane, viz:

THE FRANKFORT YEOMAN—of the 8th District.

THE LEXINGTON STATESMAN—of the 8th District.

THE LOUISVILLE COURIER—of the 7th District.

THE GEORGETOWN GAZETTE—of the 8th District.

THE PADUCAH HERALD—of the 1st District.

THE MAYSVILLE EXPRESS—of the 9th District.

THE NEWCASTLE DEMOCRAT—of the 7th District.

THE HARRODSBURG PRESS—of the 5th District.

THE MOUNTAIN DEMOCRAT—of the 6th District.

THE PARIS FLAG—of the 8th District.

THE BOWLING-GREEN STANDARD—of the 2d District.

The following sheet has been for Douglas and his heresies for several years past, and persists blindly in its folly, viz:

The Louisville Democrat—of 7th District.

The Washington Constitution, the national organ of the party and the administration, supports the Breckinridge ticket.

The Boston Post, the leading Democratic journal of New England runs up the names of Breckinridge and Lane.

Gov. Wise, of Virginia, is out strongly for Breckinridge. This finishes Douglas in the Old Dominion.

The Baltimore Argus, the Democratic organ in Maryland, has declared for Breckinridge. Douglas will not have a corporal's guard in Maryland.

The Southern papers are coming out almost unanimously for Breckinridge and Lane. Douglas will not have the ghost of a chance in any slaveholding State.

Out of 34 Democratic U. S. Senators, 32 are for Breckinridge and Lane.

[Special Dispatch to the Louisville Courier.]
 Ratification Meeting at Georgetown, Georgetown, KY., June 28th.

A great meeting ratifying the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane, was held here to-night. The town was brilliantly illuminated, and a salute of 105 guns were fired. The people are wild with enthusiasm at the nomination of those sterling National Democrats, John C. Breckinridge and Gen. Lane.

J. S. J.

We are authorized to announce Col. THOS. B. STEVENSON, of Mason, as a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, subject to the Convention of the Democracy to be held on the 18th of July.

We are authorized to announce BRENT HOKES as a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, independent of all Conventions.

Col. THOMAS C. MCCREARY, of Daviess county, a gifted and distinguished orator and politician is decidedly for John C. Breckinridge. As a public speaker he has few equals in Kentucky or elsewhere, and we trust that his eloquent voice will be raised from many a hustings in behalf of Kentucky's favorite son. Should he take the stump, but few would wish to meet him in debate, and we might count upon hundreds of accessions to our cause. The party and the country need his services in this way, and we hope soon to see a list of appointments from him.

TIMOLEON CRAVENS, Esq., one of the Democratic electors for the State at large was in Frankfort this week. He supports the Breckinridge ticket, and will do good service in the coming canvass.

Col. JAMES P. BATES, President of the Board of Internal Improvements has been in this place, for several days past.

Let our citizens bear in mind the great sale of Watches, Jewelry, and Silver Plated Sets, Castors, &c., to-day, at the corner of Main and St. Clair sts., commencing at 10 o'clock, and also at 2 and 8 o'clock, P. M. This is the last sale previous to winding up for the summer, and as the gentlemen in charge of the goods are desirous of raising as much money as possible in this city, bargains may certainly be expected. The opportunity to procure first class goods at auction, is not likely to occur again, and should be taken advantage of by all who desire to purchase. We have given the stock a close inspection, and are safe in saying that it is unsurpassed for elegance of finish, and material by any fashionable retail house in the country. Bidders are desired to attend punctually at the hours above named. Comfortable seats will be provided for the accommodation of ladies. The splendid Egg-Boiler, on exhibition we learn, will be sold to-day at auction, it is valued at $135, and we should judge, well worth it.

The Old Line Whigs for Breckinridge.

As an evidence of the feeling among that portion of the Democracy who left the old Whig party in 1856 to vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge, we are tempted to make an extract from a private letter to us, bearing date the 27th inst. The writer is a gentleman of high position and talents, well known in Kentucky politics. He does not reside in this Congressional district, and we regret that we have not full authority to use his name publicly. With this preface we shall let him speak for himself, as follows:

"As things now stand, I hold Breckinridge to be in fact, tested by the standard of Democratic principles, the legitimate Democratic candidate for President; and though I had proposed to myself to withdraw from any public or conspicuous relation to political affairs, beyond doing the duty of a private citizen at the polls, I am impressed with the duty of upholding Breckinridge in this fight, that, no matter what the consequence to myself, I mean to devote whatever of intellect, whatever of energy, whatever of influence, I may be possessed withal, by pen, tongue, or the stump, in the press, every way, to the triumph of that noble young statesman, in whose election I see the surest hope of our country's Union. The squatter sovereign eugen doctrines of Douglas have always been loathsome to me. I objected to him, also, personally. But in consideration of his association with the Democracy, under whose influence I believed his heresies would be deprived of their mischievous effect, I did in good faith intend to support him, had he been fairly nominated at Charleston on a sound platform. But his friends at Charleston insisted upon a proposal to abide the decision of the Supreme Court, while repudiating a decision already pronounced. I regarded this as an unprincipled trick designed to bamboozle and cheat us; and his after speech in the Senate satisfied me my suspicion was right. His serene speech at Washington, on Saturday night, is absolutely atrocious and infamous. He uttered three tremendous whoppers, for he said, in substance, 1. That Breckinridge's friends want to force slavery on people who don't want it. 2. That they meant division by seceding from his Convention. 3. That in a contingency they mean to prevent the inauguration of the next President elect. In my opinion, three more stupendous falsehoods could hardly be invented by the father of lies. Trust me then, I shall fight for Breckinridge and Lane with all the force of my nature, and with the aid of all personal consequences, though of course, for the sake of the cause, I shall fight discreetly and fairly, however earnestly."

The Ninth District for Breckinridge.

The Maysville Express, the able organ of the Democracy of the Ninth Congressional District, is out for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. We make an extract from the leader in that paper published yesterday:

Two Conventions have been organized at Baltimore, each claiming to represent the Democratic party of the Union; and each nominating a ticket for President and Vice President of the United States, claiming to be the ticket of the National Democracy. We, in common with all Democrats, are called upon to select between these two Conventions and tickets—to decide which of them truly represent the National Democracy, and are entitled to the fealty and support of Democrats.

Bringing to bear upon this grave and important question, all the lights before us, and our best judgment, guided by a conscientious regard for truth, and the best interests of our party and country, we have arrived at the conclusion that John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, and Joseph Lane, of Oregon, are true and proper candidates of the National Democratic party of the Union, for President and Vice President of the United States; and, therefore, we place their names at the head of our columns, as such, there to remain until the contest shall end, and to receive the hearty, enthusiastic and untiring support of this paper.

[The editor then gives his reasons at length for his position.]

For these ten reasons which we deem all sufficient, we regard the Convention which nominated Breckinridge and Lane, as the regular and only true Convention of the party, and those distinguished Democrats as the candidates of the Democracy for President and Vice President, who acknowledge allegiance to their party, are bound to render their cordial and unreserved support.

The Harrodsburg Press for Breckinridge.

The Harrodsburg Press, published in the Fifth Congressional District, came to us yesterday with the glorious banner of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE flying at its mast-head. The Press is an influential paper, edited by Col. C. C. SMEDLEY, an ex-member of the Legislature, and a stunner of great ability and reputation. It is published in a district supposed to be slightly infected with Douglasism. Here is what Col. Smedley says of the National State-rights nomination:

At the mast-head of our paper will be found the name of our own gallant and distinguished fellow-citizen, John C. Breckinridge. We have placed him before the American people as a candidate for the highest office in the world. This nomination he has accepted, and we would do injustice to the debates of heart and judgment, were we not to declare without hesitation for Democracy's noble champion, Kentucky's favorite, the nation's pride.

We had hoped that harmony would prevail in the Baltimore Convention, and that a national platform would be unanimously adopted, and national men unanimously nominated, but in this we were disappointed. The friends of Mr. Douglas were stubbornly bent upon his nomination, and would submit to nothing less, although they knew that he was odious to a large majority of the Democrats in the Southern States. Votes, resolutions, reports of committees, and everything in their power was exerted to that end, and carried to such an extent of unfairness that a large majority of the Southern delegates with a good number from the North felt it to be their duty to withdraw, and adopt such a platform as would suit the National Democracy, and present to the people the names of men for whom they could conscientiously vote. The platform adopted is substantially what was contained in the resolutions passed last winter by our Democratic State Convention. The men they have nominated are good enough for anybody and everybody to vote for, and it is with pride, pleasure, and hope that we place their names at the head of our columns.

Breckinridge and Lane enter the field, with seventeen States certain for them. With the prestige of this strength, they will rally to their support the Democratic masses of the free States, when they see as they must that Douglas has no chance to carry a single State.

We had the pleasure, yesterday, of meeting Mr. DULANEY, the talented editor of the Bowling-green Standard. He informs us that the Standard will give its able support to Kentucky's favorite, John C. Breckinridge, and that old Warren will give a good account of herself in August and November.

LARGE SALE OF A COTTON PLANTATION.—Joshua M. Craig, of Chicot county, Arkansas, recently sold to Judge Francis Griffin, of Washington county, Mississippi, his plantation and negroes, known as the "Leland Plantation," for the handsome sum of $400,000—$100,000 cash, and the residue in seven equal annual payments, with eight per cent. interest.

The Douglas Convention.

The "Rump" Convention, as the Maysville Express truly and sensibly remarks, had no claim to the character of a National Convention of the Democratic party. Oregon, California, Texas, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, Delaware, and South Carolina were neither represented nor pretended to be represented in it. Alabama and Louisiana were represented by a set of impostors—men having no authority from the Democracy of those States to represent them. The Arkansas bogus delegates, thrust into the seats of the regular delegates, were chosen by some fifteen or twenty men, having no authority to represent the Democratic party of Arkansas. There was but a trifling minority from the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, and Virginia. Only a minority from Massachusetts.—One third of the Pennsylvania delegation silent. Part of Minnesota gone, and at least one third of the delegates from the Douglas States, prevented from voting against Douglas by the iniquitous unit rule. What right had such a body to speak for the Democracy of the Union?

The Richmond Democrat for Breckinridge.

The Richmond Democrat, the only Democratic paper published in the Sixth or Mountain District, has hoisted the banner of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. The editor says:

We place at the head of our columns to-day the names of our nominees for President and Vice President—JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, of Kentucky, (our first choice,) and JO. LANE, of Oregon. Our entire avowed space is filled with the proceedings of the Conventions, rendering it impossible to go into particulars. We shall discuss them at length hereafter.

The nominees are worthy of the support of every lover of his country, and will sweep the country with a unanimity hardly surpassed by the canvass of 1852. Three cheers for the nominees!

Both of the delegates from the Sixth District, John Dishman and Colbert Cecil, were in the Breckinridge Convention; and Col. Ed. W. Turner, the elector, is, we are informed, warmly for the State-rights ticket. The Mountains will soon be in a perfect blaze for Breckinridge and Lane!

GOVERNOR'S GUARDS.—We are requested to announce a meeting of the Governor's Guards this evening at half past 7 o'clock, punctually. Business of vital importance to the company will be transacted. Among other things, the contemplated changes and improvements in the uniform will be discussed and acted upon immediately, in order that the company may make an improved appearance at Lexington at the Fourth of July Celebration in that city. But, above all, it is of the most pressing necessity that every man should be present in order to prepare himself, by diligent drill, for a creditable appearance in our sister city on Independence day.

The most liberal and hospitable arrangements for the entertainment of their guests have been made by the military of Lexington, and it is but fair that our company should show its appreciation of their labors by a united effort. There will be a large number of companies present from a distance, and great emulation amongst them; and, unless every man uses due diligence in attendance and drill, the company will not go to Lexington.

We are requested to say that there will be drills on Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday.—Let no man, under any pretext, be absent from any one of the drills. Come one, come all.

The Baltimore Conventions and Nominations.

We publish elsewhere condensed reports of the proceedings of the Democratic Convention at Baltimore, or more properly speaking, of the two Conventions. There is no patriot that will not deplore the unfortunate result, but regrets will accomplish no good, and it behooves every citizen who values the safety of the South, and the continuance of Democratic rule, to go to work in earnest for Breckinridge and Lane, the men for the people and the times. Better nominations could not have been made. The chances of crushing out Black Republicanism have been somewhat lessened by the disruption of the Democratic party, but we think there is no great cause for despair.

We believe the sober, second thought of the people will work a good result, and that all loyal and patriotic citizens will rally to the polls in November, and cast their votes for the ticket that floats at the head of our paper. Both names inscribed on our banner are as familiar to the country as household words. Both men are known and loved by the people, and we will be sadly mistaken if their patriotism and devotion to country and principles are not recognized and rewarded.

Our full telegraphic dispatches bring the glorious tidings that Breckinridge has been nominated by the National Democratic Convention at Baltimore, for President, and Lane for Vice President. There is no fall in this ticket. It is one that will be endorsed by every true-hearted Southerner, as well as by every patriot of the land. These nominations are a death blow to Douglas and his squatter sovereignty doctrines. They were made by a Convention composed of a large majority of all the States, and so far as we are now informed, of a majority of all the delegates. Those left in the Rump Convention represent States that will, in nearly every instance, give their votes for the Black Republicans, and can well be spared.

Writing as our paper is going to press, we have only time to congratulate the people on the nomination, and to heartily endorse Breckinridge and Lane.—N. O. Delta.

DEATH OF JOEL SCOTT, Esq.—We learn that Joel Scott Esq., an old and respected citizen of Woodford county, died at his residence yesterday morning, June 28th. Mr. Scott was for a number of years a citizen of this city, and keeper of the Kentucky Penitentiary, to which position he was several times elected by the Legislature, but owing to his onerous duties his health became bad, and he voluntarily retired from the office and settled on a farm. He has lived to a good old age, and died highly respected by his numerous acquaintances. We hope some friend will furnish an obituary of Mr. S. as we are not sufficiently advised as to his life to write one.—Commonwealth.

Last night Mr. McCreary delivered a most able and eloquent address in the Baptist Church, before the literary societies of Georgetown college. It was listened to by a large and fashionable audience. The address ought to be published.—Georgetown Gaz., 27th.

The nomination of Breckinridge and Lane is received with enthusiastic delight by the Democracy of Mason, and as we learn, by the Democracy throughout north eastern Kentucky. We doubt not that the few Democrats in Kentucky, friendly to Douglas, will cheerfully give their support to Kentucky's favorite and their own.—Maysville Express.

[Correspondence of the Yeoman.]

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 26, 1860.

EDITOR YEOMAN: The National Democratic Convention having nominated John C. Breckinridge and Joseph Lane, as candidates for President and Vice President, a crowd of nearly 3,000 persons, headed by a band of music, assembled last evening at Major Breckinridge's residence to congratulate him on his nomination in the name of the National Democrats of the Union, and to ratify the same. After repeated calls for Mr. Breckinridge, he appeared, and was greeted with tremendous cheering, clapping of hands and waving of hats, and handkerchiefs. He addressed this great crowd, composed of citizens of all the States of the Union, in the following words:

"That heart would be cold and insensible indeed that did not throb with gratitude at such an exhibition of the confidence of his countrymen. He felt it, deeply, and did not affect to conceal it. He had seen with feelings of a pain the divisions and disturbances which had occurred in the Democratic Convention, and had hoped to see in the end that these evils would be averted. His friends knew that he would not for an instant permit his name to stand in the way of paternal harmony.

He well knew there were gentlemen in the North and South of experience and ability who were fitted better than himself for such a trust. But, without referring in detail to the proceedings at Baltimore, he would only say that the Convention which assembled at the Maryland Institute was composed, in his opinion, of the National Democracy of the United States. [Cries of "good," and cheers.] When he learned, though with regret, that his name had been presented to the country, he did not take long to determine that he would not meanly abandon them. [Applause.]

He had understood that some persons occupying high positions entertain the belief that the National Democratic party is a "disunion party" and intend to break up the Union of these States. [Cries of "never; we intend to preserve it."] He had read the resolutions adopted by the Convention, and he was glad to find that there was nothing in them, in the character of that Convention, or the gentlemen who composed it, or if he was allowed to add, in the character of the nominees, to justify it. [Applause.]

Instead of breaking up the Union, we intend, he said, to strengthen and lengthen it! [A voice "Cuba!"]

One of the resolutions declared the equality of the States in all the common Territories under their common Constitution. But no man is a unionist who wants to preserve the Union or the great principles of the Constitution and the equality of the States.

Another resolution of the series adopted, instead of breaking up the Union, seems to be a pledge by the power of organization to unite by iron bands its different parts. He hoped this would be speedily and grandly realized. He saw nothing sectional there from any of the States.

Our peace, said Mr. Breckinridge, has never been disturbed except where the principles embodied in these resolutions have been departed from. With regard to himself, when the Convention selected him as one of its candidates, looking at his humble antecedents and the place of his abode, it gave to the country a personal and geographical guarantee that its interest was in the Union. [Cheers.]

He alluded to his distinguished associate, Gen. Lane, and proceeded as follows:

It sometimes happened that men are placed in a position when they are reluctant to act and expose themselves to censure if not to execration they do not merit. But we must be prepared to meet such occasions in this life. All men can move forward with dignity and with calm and unflinching step. It was his purpose to pursue that course. He conceded to others the same good purpose he claimed for himself.

Without acrimony and animosity, he accepted the nomination tendered to him, [applause] and should quickly, firmly, and he hoped bravely, to accept the responsibility imposed upon him. He cherished the hope that Providence will lead us out of our civil disorders, and in his good time conduct us to tranquility and peace. [Long continued cheering.]

Mr. Breckinridge having concluded, Senator Davis followed in an eloquent strain, eulogistic of the personal and public character of Mr. Breckinridge and Gen. Lane. The Democratic party was not the party which seeks for spots or rests itself on the claims of men. When Mr. Van Buren proved untrue, they cut him off as a diseased member, and when, at a more recent period, a Democrat proved recreant, it remained for the party, faithful to its instincts, to separate him also from the body. He vindicated the Convention that nominated Mr. Breckinridge and Gen. Lane. Let, said he, the speculation go, where imagination leads them. The Democracy honor President Buchanan for all he has done, and casts the complaints of the office-seekers to the winds. [Applause.]

He spoke of the Constitution and State rights, and proclaimed justice and fraternity as the principles under which Breckinridge and Lane will be elected. [Applause.]

Messrs. Foomb and Hallet followed, the latter insisting, as the framer of the Cincinnati platform, that there was nothing therein, in the least countenancing "squatter sovereignty." The Wilmore proviso having been removed from Congress, was adopted with a view of keeping slavery out of the Territories, and gain Abolition votes under a spurious Democracy.

Mr. Hogan, of Kentucky, made some humorous remarks, when the procession proceeded to Brown's Hotel, where an immense crowd had previously gathered.

General Lane, after the performance of an air, appeared and tendered his thanks to the assembly for this manifestation of their kindness. He was proud of the Presidential nominee of the Baltimore Convention, as a man whom he had long known on the battle field and in the councils of the nation, and he felt it deeply honored in being placed on the same ticket.

He accepted the nomination of the National Democracy assembled at Baltimore, and with them believed in the equality and rights the States, under the Constitution. None exceeded him in loyalty and devotedness to his country, and for the perpetuity of the Union, he was willing to lay down his life.

The General was warmly applauded throughout his remarks. He was followed by Mr. Yatey, who said the country was in a crisis from which it was the duty of the Democracy to retrieve it.—He spoke at some length, and was frequently applauded.

The demonstration continued beyond midnight. And there was an earnestness about it, showing a determination to support till the end of the war the National Democratic nominees, Breckinridge and Lane.

Fitzpatrick has declined the Vice Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket, and it has been tendered to Governor Johnson, of Georgia, who accepts. W. D.

W. H. WATERMAN'S
ENGLISH & CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL,
 FRAKFOFT, KY.

HAVING purchased the residence and school property of Prof. B. A. Grant, I am glad to announce to my numerous patrons and to the public, that I am now enabled to continue my School with increased facilities. The new building is a large and commodious one, built upon the most approved plan, well ventilated, and furnished with desks of the latest style. The large West wing is the most respected part of South Frankfort. With these increased facilities, I hope to establish a School with such a system of discipline and instruction, as will command itself to all prudent friends of a thorough classic education. Have ample accommodations for twenty-five boarders, which number will be received in the fall.

School Year begins Second Wednesday in September.

TERMS—1st the Academic year, one half in advance, remainder 1st of February.

For boarders including tuition in the English branches, board, fuel, lights, and washing..... $160

IRIN AMALGAM BELLS.

WE take pleasure in ing the attention of those interested, to the annexed Price Lists of our cheap Church, School, and Farm Bells, which, it will be observed, are offered at about one-third as much as is usually charged for those of corresponding size and weight, by the manufacturers of brass-composition Bells.

These Bells are composed of an amalgam, in particular, which is so much cheaper than the metals heretofore employed for the same purpose, yet seems to possess durability and sonorous qualities superior to the latter.

A Specific for Hooping-Cough

It is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson, Shelby, and Ouidham that I have a remedy for the actuals of Hooping-Cough, and that there are remedies in America or Europe that cures it, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend, it can't be cured. I have no doubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and full to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are advised to get the medicine, and save the little innocent whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficient for one cure. This medicine can be conveyed to any part of the United States by express for a mere trifle. Residence Green street, between

 RESTORING THE BALD AND GRAY.
 MANY, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood's Restorative, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but also to imitate his success in restoring hair, would produce results identical; but they have come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful effects, that, in an stage of life, when the hair is forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Read the following:
 Bath, Maine, April 18th, 1859.
 PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO. GENTS:—The letter I wrote you in 1856, concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this country, has been in my hands, and I have made inquiries touching the facts in the case. The inquires are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true, by therein stated, that I do not desire to continue to be in good order and of natural color To all can and do answer invariably yes. My hair every other day, in an stage of life, when the hair years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off from the action of the water. When I carewere used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair.
 I have been in the receipt of your Restorative for from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of cheap imitations, and the hair is so much injured, being harshly imitated, and used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any kind, but I have seen it used by many, and have as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face, and, as I do not desire to use a stick of hair, or men oil of the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer for which I am very grateful; I gave it to my friends and they are all well. I have not yet had time to be critical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test bottle, that I may give it to my friends, as I am very much pleased with it. I am very much pleased by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is due to the use of an impure article. I am the vender of the good. I deem it my duty as heretofore to keep you apprised of the continued effect upon my hair, and to give you my opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours,
 A. C. RAYMOND.
 Arcion's Run, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858.

Rev. P. S. Allen writes: "Justice not to make known to the world the wonderful, as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your 'Restorative' is, that I have been enabled to keep my head nearly destitute of hair. I was finally induced to use your 'Restorative' because of its candor and justice compel me to announce to you every man read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful head of hair, and that I am a stronger and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it. Respectfully yours,

Rev. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S.—This testimonial of my approval for your valuable medicine, you will be pleased to insert, but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish: not, destroy and say nothing.

Adjutant General's Orders.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
FRANKFORT, April 17, 1860.

BY direction of the Governor of the State, the attention of the proper civil officers is called to the following annual duties, which they are required to relate to the enrollment of the whole body of the Militia, viz:

ARTICLE II.

"§ 1. The Enrolled Militia shall consist of all able bodied free male persons above the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, who may be citizens or residents of the State, except persons who have served not less than five years in the Army or Navy of the United States, or who have been in the regular service of the Volunteer Militia, and persons already exempt from military service by the laws of the United States."

"§ 2. It shall be the duty of the assessors to prepare a list annually of all persons liable to be enrolled, living within their respective limits; and the said annual list shall be in a roll or list, in the following form, to-wit: (to be filled in by the assessor), and place it, before the first day of June, in the hands of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such persons live; and it shall be the duty of every such clerk, immediately thereafter, to record said roll or list of names, in a book to be provided for that purpose, in the county clerk's office; and other books of record, and such record so made shall be deemed a sufficient notification to all persons whose names are thus recorded, that they have been enrolled."

"§ 4. That it shall be the duty of the clerk of every county court to transmit to the Adjutant General of the State, prior to the first day of September, in each year, a true and correct return, stating the number of the Militia of such county that have been enrolled."

"§ 5. That for the services required by this act, of every clerk of county court, he shall receive and be allowed as each of these officers the sum of one cent for each name returned by the assessor and enrolled."

"§ 6. All county clerks, assessors, sheriffs, or other civil officers, upon whom are devolved the discharge of specific duties under this act, who shall neglect or refuse to do the same, shall be deemed to have acted unlawfully, and shall forfeit and pay not more than five hundred nor less than twenty dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered by the State, in any competent jurisdiction for the use of the Commonwealth."

"§ 7. For the purpose of organizing the Enrolled Militia, each county shall be considered a regiment, and shall be divided into companies by districts, and therein are hereby abolished."

"§ 8. At the first annual election held after the passage of this act, the persons to be elected shall be elected by the persons in each regimental district subject to enrollment, in the same manner, and to the same end, as the place names are. The names of the officers are chosen at said elections, and the result of the election for such Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel shall be certified by the board of election to the Governor, and the Governor, in the event of a vacancy occurring or existing in either of said offices, it should be filled in the same manner as the place names are filled in at the said election; but the Commander-in-Chief shall have authority to order a special election to fill such vacancies.

The objects of the above sections of the law are, firstly, to obtain a full enrollment of the entire Militia, and, secondly, to obtain a full representation of the Militia in the Legislature, and the Assistant General to make a complete return to the general government, as a basis on which to draw our quota of arms; and, secondly, to obtain a full representation of the Militia in the Legislature, for a complete organization of the Enrolled Militia into companies, battalions, and regiments. The assessors will use the names of the Militia on the list of names, public and the county clerks are desired to make the returns to my offices soon as practicable after enrollment, and the names of the Militia on the list of names, public and the county clerks are desired to make the returns to my offices soon as practicable after enrollment, and the names will be reported by the county clerks to my office.

Article IV makes it the special duty of the Adjutant General to see that the "offices of Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel in each regimental district shall be the board of examiners." In obedience to this injunction, I therefore call the attention of proper civil officers to be Section 8, Article II, hereinafter quoted. A column will be opened in the next issue of the Advertiser for the place of voting in each county, at the next August election, to record the votes for the offices of Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel for the regimental district. The board of examiners are desired to report the result of such election as early as practicable. All persons in the county liable to be enrolled as soldiers, or others, will be entitled to vote for those officers.

As soon as the Colonel is commissioned, instructions will be given for his guidance in organizing his regimental district.

cases of new companies mustered into the service under this act. The statement of arms, this inventory, and the receipt for the same, shall be the strength of the company, shall be transmitted to the inspector general, who shall cause the company to be mustered into the State Militia in the same manner as if it were a new company.

§ 50. Should any existing company fail, with the approval of the inspector general, to observe the prescribed conditions, it shall be considered as disbanded; and it shall be the duty of the county attorney to cause the same to be so recorded, in which such disbanded company existed, on the reorganization of any officer of the Active Militia, the company shall be reorganized, and the property of the State arms and other property which has been issued for the use of such company.

§ 51. No part of the property of the arms from the passage of this act, no person who is not a member of the Active Militia, shall retain or have in his possession at any time, any arms, accoutrements, or long arms of the State, unless they have been properly issued to such person in pursuance of law, and he shall be permitted by proper authority to retain and use the same, and shall be liable to the same penalties as if he should use the same in any manner prohibited by law.

Alfred Pell, Resident Secretary of the Liverpool and London Fire and Life Insurance Company, do full, true, and correct statement of the affairs of said company—that the said Insurance Company is not a corporation, but is a partnership of one hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, actually invested in cash capital invested in stocks and Bonds, or in mortgages on unincumbered real estate, worth from fifty to one hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, and that the same is mortgaged for; that none of the above described investments, nor any part thereof, are made by the said company, but are made by the individuals in the management of said company, nor for any other person or persons whatever; that the mortgages above described are made by the said company, but are not released or impaired by said company; and that he is the above described officer of the said Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.

ALFRED PELL, Resident Secretary.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, a Commissioner for Kentucky, in and for said county of New York, State of New York, this 29th day of January, A. D. 1900.

DAN. SEIXAS,
Commissioner for Kentucky, New York.

AUTOR'S OFFICE, KY.
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 1, 1900.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original on file in this office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal,

U.S. _____
the day and year above written.

GRANT GREEN, Auditor.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.
Frankfort, Ky., May 7, 1860.

This is to certify, that John M. Harlan, as agent of the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company of Br. at New York, at Frankfort, Frankfort county, has filed in his office the statements and returns required by an act of the Legislature of this State entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," approved March 3, 1856; and having been shown to me, the Auditor of this State, that said company is possessed of an actual capital of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as required by said act, I said John M. Harlan, as Agent of said company, is duly licensed and permitted to take risks and transact business of insurance at his office in Frankfort, for the term of one year from the date of this certificate, and the same may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that since the filing of the statements above reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

 In testimony whereof, I have set my hand, this day and year above written.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!!
It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the Symptoms, among which will be found Toxemia, or Toxemia, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Debility, Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Watery Eyes, Dropsical Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite, with Dyspepsia, Stomachic, Headache, Vertigo, Dropsy, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance, and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Head, Pain in the Back, Stiffness of the Limbs, Eruptions, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the eyes, with temporary Suffusion of the Eyes, Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more Desirable than such Patients should be cured, and nothing they more dread than fear for themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no concentration but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follow in the train of LATTENT CONSUMPTION, and the result of which the patient may expire. When, therefore, that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION, the reason of the absence of the latter is the absence of the former. To avert the melancholy deaths by CONSUMPTION, bear ample testimony to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums, where the exhibition of the medicine is prohibited, the countenance is actually sullen and quite dead to mirth. Neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound mind be used to the medicine, it will regulate.

"With woe-ful measures woe despair,
"Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled."

Debility is most terrible and has brought thousands upon thousands to untimely graves, the increasing debility of many a noble youth. It can be cured by the use of this
